

SOME RECENT PUBLICATIONS ON INDONESIA

Compiled by the Editors

The list which follows is by no means exhaustive. Such a list would be beyond our capacity to collect and also would duplicate the annual bibliography of the Journal of Asian Studies. The editors felt, however, that there was a need for a more current listing than that provided by the JAS and also that it would be useful to divide the items by place of publication in order to give our readers an indication of the kinds of Indonesian studies being carried out in various countries. In keeping with this, we have provided translations of titles from Japan and East Europe for the benefit of readers who, while not familiar with the particular languages, would still be interested to know what people in these countries are working on.

The editors express their appreciation to the following persons without whose help this list would not have been possible:

David Baker, Department of Political Science, University of California, Berkeley.

Françoise Blanchard, Center for International Relations, Paris.

O. V. Bunakova, Director, Ethnographic Institute Library, Academy of Social Sciences, Leningrad.

Kenichi Goto, Institute of Developing Economies, Tokyo.

Andrew Gunawan, Monash University, Clayton, Australia.

Ruth McVey, School of Oriental and African Studies, London University, London.

Rudolf Mrazek, Oriental Institute, Academy of Sciences, Prague.

W. Sikorsky, Institute of Oriental Languages, Moscow University, Moscow.

Editors' Note: Since compiling this list, it has come to our attention that R. S. Karni of the Koninklijke Instituut voor Taal-, Land- en Volkenkunde in Leiden has begun publication of a semi-annual bibliography on Indonesia which will contain abstracts of the articles listed. The publication, entitled Excerpta Indonesica, is scheduled to include about 150 selected abstracts and is available upon request from the Institute. Although we had originally intended to continue our own listing on an annual basis, in the light of the news about the KITLV publication, it seems to us that they would be in a better position to organize and continue a substantial and current listing of works on Indonesia. We would however be interested to hear from our readers any opinions they might have on the possible worth of continuing our own bibliographic listing service.
